

DISABILITY EMPLOYMENT SERVICES PROVIDER SCORECARDS

The Department of Social Services have introduced new performance scorecards to assess Disability Employment Services providers. The table below shows the ratings covering Quality and Effectiveness.

The published scorecards are available at <https://www.dss.gov.au/disability-employment-programs/disability-employment-services-performance-scorecards>

The data from the scorecards for September 2025 is shown in the table below. The published data uses smiley faces for ratings. The table below uses numbers for ratings rather than smileys. The providers are listed in order by 'Effectiveness' then 'Quality' then alphabetically.

The 6 services that are exceeding expectations for 'Effectiveness' are at the top of the table and shown in alphabetical order.

1	Providers did not fully meet service expectations and improvement was required.
2	Providers are meeting service expectations
3	Providers are exceeding service expectations
-	Insufficient data or not assessed. Providers that did not have enough participants to be able to show a score or the score is not being measured.
